

SECTION C | SERVICE OF PAPERS

1. For purposes of serving counsel with "papers" (i.e. written documents filed or served in case) in accordance with the rules of procedure and judicial administration, attorneys should maintain at all times, and provide opposing counsel with, an active email address, facsimile number, and mailing address, and attorneys should not turn off or deactivate their email or facsimile equipment/systems.

