

INTRO

These instructions will be in three parts:

first, general rules that define and control your duties as jurors;

second, the rules of law that you must apply in deciding whether the plaintiff has proven [his/her] case; and third, some rules for your deliberations.

You may take these instructions with you to the jury room.

