

8.01 | FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

Prior to the actual trial, a pretrial conference is usually held between the judge and the parties (or their counsel) to determine (1) what exhibits and witnesses each side might use during the trial; (2) the approximate length of time that will be necessary for the trial and (3) the “ground rules” the Court will utilize before, during and after the trial.

(Federal Bar Association: Access to Justice Task Force. © 2019.

Honorable Mention: USNYND, USCAND)

