

X-D-55 | EXEMPTION SUMMARY - §288 FSSection 288.047(5) (e) , F.S.

Information relating to wages and performance of participants which is submitted pursuant to a grant agreement prepared by CareerSource Florida, Inc., pursuant to the Quick-Response Training Program which, if released, would disclose the identity of the person to whom the information pertains or the person's employer is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1).

Section 288.047(7) , F.S.

In providing instruction pursuant to the Quick-Response Training Program, materials relating to methods of manufacture or production, potential trade secrets, business transactions, or proprietary information received or discovered by employees of specified agencies are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1).

Section 288.075(2

(6), F.S. - If a private entity requests in writing before an economic incentive agreement is signed that an economic development agency (EDA) maintain the confidentiality of information concerning the plans, intentions, or interests of the private entity to locate, relocate or expand its business activities in Florida, the information is confidential and exempt from disclosure for 12 months after the EDA receives a request for confidentiality or the information is otherwise disclosed, whichever occurs first. An EDA may extend the period of confidentiality for up to an additional 12 months under certain conditions. If a final project order for a signed economic development agreement is issued, then the information remains confidential and exempt for 180 days after the final project order is issued, until a date specified in the final project order, or until the information is otherwise disclosed, whichever occurs first. However, such confidentiality may not extend beyond the period of confidentiality established in the exemption. Trade secrets and the federal employer identification number, reemployment assistance account number, or Florida sales tax registration number held by an EDA are confidential and exempt, as well as other records as described in the exemption. Specified information held by an EDA relating to a specific business participating in an economic incentive program is no longer confidential or exempt 180 days after a final project order for an economic incentive agreement is issued, until a date specified in the final project order, or if the information is otherwise disclosed, whichever occurs first.
