

X-D-170 | EXEMPTION SUMMARY - §721 FSSection 721.071, F.S.

If a developer or other person filing material with the Division of Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation pursuant to chapter 721 relating to time-share plans expects the division to keep the material confidential on grounds that the material constitutes a trade secret as defined in s. 812.081, that person shall file the material together with an affidavit of confidentiality as provided in the section. If the division is satisfied as to the facial validity of the claim of confidentiality, it shall keep the affidavit and supporting documentation confidential and shall not disclose such information except upon administrative or court order.

(Florida Office of the Attorney General // © March 9, 2023)

