

X-D-190 | EXEMPTION SUMMARY - §905 FSSection 905.17(1), F.S.

Stenographic records, notes and transcriptions made by a court reporter during a grand jury session are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and shall be filed with the clerk who shall keep them in a sealed container not subject to public inspection.

Section 905.24, F.S.

Grand jury proceedings are secret and a grand juror or interpreter appointed pursuant to s. 90.6063(2) shall not disclose the nature or substance of the deliberations or vote of the grand jury.

Section 905.26, F.S.

Unless ordered by the court, a grand juror, reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or officer of the court may not disclose the finding of an indictment against a person not in custody or under recognizance, except by issuing or executing process on the indictment, until the person has been arrested.

Section 905.27(1) and (2), F.S.

A grand juror, state attorney, assistant state attorney, reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or any other person appearing before the grand jury may not disclose evidence received by it except when required by a court. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to publish, disclose or cause to be published or disclosed any witness's testimony before a grand jury unless such testimony is or has been disclosed in a court proceeding.

Section 905.28(1), F.S.

A report or presentment of a grand jury relating to an individual which is not accompanied by a true bill or indictment is confidential and exempt and shall not be made public until the individual concerned has been furnished a copy and given 15 days to file a motion to repress or expunge the report.

Section 905.395, F.S.

Unless pursuant to court order, it is unlawful for any person knowingly to publish, broadcast, disclose, divulge, or communicate or cause or permit such publication or communication to any person outside the statewide grand jury room, any of the proceedings or identity of persons referred to or being investigated by the statewide grand jury.
