

X-D-197 | EXEMPTION SUMMARY - §943 FSSection 943.03(2), F.S.

Records related to a Florida Department of Law Enforcement investigation requested by the Governor concerning official misconduct of public officials and employees, are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) until the investigation is completed or is no longer "active" as defined in the subsection.

Section 943.031(9)(c) and (d), F.S.

The Florida Violent Crime and Drug Control Council may close portions of meetings during which the council will hear or discuss active criminal investigative information or active criminal intelligence information and such portions of meetings are exempt from open meetings requirements, provided that the conditions set forth in the subsection are met. A tape recording of, and any minutes and notes generated during, the closed portion of a meeting are confidential and exempt until the criminal investigative or intelligence information ceases to be active.

Section 943.0314, F.S.

That portion of a meeting of the Domestic Security Oversight Council at which the council will hear or discuss active criminal investigative information or active criminal intelligence information is exempt from open meetings requirements provided that the conditions set forth in the exemption are complied with. An audio or video recording of, and any minutes and notes generated during, a closed meeting are exempt from public disclosure requirements until such time as the criminal investigative information or criminal intelligence information heard or discussed therein ceases to be active.

Section 943.0321(4), F.S.

Information that is exempt from public disclosure under Ch. 119 when in the possession of the Florida Domestic Security and Counter-Terrorism Intelligence Center retains its exemption from public disclosure after such information is revealed to a law enforcement agency or prosecutor, except as otherwise provided by law. Exempt information obtained by the center from a law enforcement agency or prosecutor retains its exemption from public disclosure, except as otherwise provided by law.

Section 943.053(3), F.S.

Criminal history information relating to a juvenile and compiled by the Criminal Justice Information Program from intrastate sources is confidential and exempt except as provided in the exemption.

Section 943.053(5), (8), (9), and (10), F.S.

Sealed records received by a court for the purpose of assisting judges in their case-related responsibilities, or by a private entity under contract to operate a juvenile offender facility, county detention facility or state correctional facility pursuant to cited laws remain confidential and exempt from disclosure.

Section 943.057, F.S.

This section (providing for access to criminal justice information in the Department of Law Enforcement for research or statistical purposes) does not require release of confidential information or require the department to accommodate requests that would disrupt ongoing operations beyond the extent required by s. 119.07.

Section 943.0582(5), F.S.

Nonjudicial records held by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement pertaining to the arrest of juveniles for certain crimes who have had the records sealed or expunged pursuant to s. 943.0582, are confidential. Disclosure is authorized as provided in the exemption.

Section 943.0583(10) (a), F.S.

A criminal history record of a human trafficking victim that is ordered expunged under this section that is retained by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement is confidential and exempt except that the record shall be made available to criminal justice agencies for their respective criminal justice purposes; to any governmental agency that is authorized by law to determine eligibility to purchase or possess a firearm or to carry a concealed firearm for use in the course of such agency's official duties; or by court order.

Section 943.0583(11) , F.S.

Criminal intelligence information or criminal investigative information that reveals or may reveal the identity of a person who is a victim of human trafficking whose criminal history record has been ordered expunged or has been expunged under s. 943.0583 is confidential and exempt. Disclosure is authorized under specified circumstances.

Section 943.0585(6) , F.S.

A criminal history record ordered expunged that is retained by the Department of Law Enforcement pursuant to this section is confidential and exempt and is not available to any person or entity except upon court order.

Section 943.0585(6) (d) , F.S.

Information relating to the existence of an expunged criminal history record which is provided in accordance with paragraph (a), is confidential and exempt, except that the Florida Department of Law Enforcement shall disclose the existence of an expunged record to the agencies set forth in the paragraph for their respective licensing and employment purposes and to criminal justice agencies for their respective criminal justice purposes. It is unlawful for any employee of an entity identified in the paragraph to disclose such information except to the person to whom the record relates or to persons having direct responsibility for employment or licensure decisions.

Section 943.059(6) (a) , F.S.

A criminal history record of a minor or an adult which is ordered sealed by a court pursuant to this section is confidential and exempt and available only to the persons and entities identified in the subsection.

Section 943.059(6) (d) , F.S.

Information relating to the existence of such record that is provided in accordance with paragraph (a) is confidential and exempt, except that the Florida Department of Law Enforcement shall disclose a sealed record to the agencies set forth in the paragraph for their respective licensing and employment purposes. It is unlawful for any employee of an entity identified in the paragraph to disclose such information except to the person to whom the record relates or to persons having direct responsibility for employment or licensure decisions.

Section 943.082(6), F.S.

The identity of the reporting party received through the mobile suspicious activity reporting tool and held by the Department of Law Enforcement, law enforcement agencies, or school officials is confidential and exempt. Any other information received through the tool and held by such agencies is exempt.

Section 943.1395(6)(b), F.S.

The report of misconduct and all records or information provided to or developed by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission during the course of an investigation conducted by the commission are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and, except as otherwise provided by law, such information shall be subject to public disclosure only after a determination as to probable cause has been made or until the investigation becomes inactive. However, the officer being investigated or the officer's attorney may review records as authorized in the exemption.

Section 943.173(3), F.S.

Examinations, assessments, and instruments and examination results, other than test scores on officer certification examinations, including developmental materials and workpapers, administered pursuant to s. 943.13(9) or (10) and s. 943.17 are exempt from s. 119.07(1).

Section 943.325(14), F.S.

The results of a DNA analysis and the comparison of analytic results submitted to the Department of Law Enforcement under this section shall be released only to criminal justice agencies as defined in s. 943.045(10), at the request of the agency. Otherwise, such information is confidential and exempt.

Section 943.687(8), F.S.

Any portion of a meeting of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Public Safety Commission at which exempt or confidential information is discussed is exempt from open meetings requirements.
