

ITEM 5.3.10 | DISASTER PREVENTION AND RECOVERY STRATEGY

The system must use reasonable measures to prevent service interruption and have a plan for the continuation of operations if an interruption occurs. It must be designed to minimize the risk of data loss, including but not limited to secure, regular, and redundant data backup.

