

ITEM 5.5.7 | WORD SEARCH

The system must be able to search the contents of the documents in the official court files of a single case or multiple cases selected according to limiting criteria, including division of court, date range, related cases of a party, attorney, or other participant, charges or causes of action, and document type.

