WORKSHARING AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

FLORIDA COMMISSION ON HUMAN RELATIONS
(Full Name of FEPA)

and

THE U.S. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

MIAMI
(Name of EEOC District Office)

FOR FISCAL YEAR 2020

I. INTRODUCTION

- A. The FLORIDA COMMISSION ON HUMAN RELATIONS FLORIDA COMMISSION ON HUMAN RELATIONS, hereinafter referred to as the FEPA, has jurisdiction over allegations of employment discrimination filed against employers of 15 or more employees occurring within FLORIDA based on race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status pursuant to (Section 760.05, F.S.).

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, hereinafter referred to as the EEOC, has jurisdiction over allegations of employment discrimination occurring throughout the United States where such charges are based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, all pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. § 2000(e)) (hereinafter referred to as Title VII). The EEOC has jurisdiction to investigate and determine charges of discrimination based on age (40 or older) under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 621 et. seq.) (ADEA), for unequal wages based on sex under the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 206) (EPA), and over allegations of employment discrimination based on disability pursuant to Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended (42 U.S.C. § 12101) (ADA), and over the use or acquisition of genetic information as the basis for employment decisions pursuant to Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008.

- B. In recognition of, and to the extent of the common jurisdiction and goals of the two (2) Agencies, and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the FEPA and the EEOC hereby agree to the terms of this Worksharing Agreement, which is designed to provide individuals with an efficient procedure for obtaining redress for their grievances under appropriate (Florida) and Federal laws.

II. FILING OF CHARGES OF DISCRIMINATION

- A. In order to facilitate the assertion of employment rights, the EEOC and the FEPA each designate the other as its agent for the purpose of receiving and drafting charges, including those that are not jurisdictional with the agency that initially receives the charges. The EEOC's receipt of charges on the FEPA's behalf will automatically initiate the proceedings of both the EEOC and the FEPA for the purposes of Section 706 (c) and (e) (1) of Title VII. This delegation of authority to receive charges does not include the right of one Agency to determine the jurisdiction of the other Agency over a charge. Charges can be transferred from one agency to another in accordance with the terms of this agreement or by other mutual agreement.
- B. The FEPA shall take all charges alleging a violation of Title VII, the ADEA, the EPA, GINA or the ADA where both the FEPA and the EEOC have mutual jurisdiction, or where the EEOC only has jurisdiction, so long as the allegations meet the minimum requirements of those Acts, and for charges specified in Section III. A. 1. below, refer them to the EEOC for initial processing.
- C. Each Agency will inform individuals of their rights to file charges directly with the other Agency and or assist any person alleging employment discrimination to draft a charge in a manner that will satisfy the requirements of both agencies to the extent of their common jurisdiction.

Normally, once an agency begins an investigation, it resolves the charge. Charges may be transferred between the EEOC and the FEPA within the framework of a mutually agreeable system. Each agency will advise Charging Parties that charges will be resolved by the agency taking the charge except when the agency taking the charge lacks jurisdiction or when the charge is to be transferred in accordance with Section III (DIVISION OF INITIAL CHARGE-PROCESSING RESPONSIBILITIES).

- D. For charges that are to be dual-filed, each Agency will use EEOC Charge Form 5 (or alternatively, an employment discrimination charge form which within statutory limitations, is acceptable in form and content to the EEOC and the FEPA) to draft charges. When a charge is taken based on disability, the nature of the disability shall not be disclosed on the face of the charge. (If applicable state statute or local ordinance requires such disclosures, this sentence may be deleted.)

(More specific instructions depending on District Office/FEPA procedures should also be included here.)

- E. Within ten calendar days of receipt, each Agency agrees that it will notify both the Charging Party and the Respondent of the dual-filed nature of each such charge it receives for initial processing and explain the rights and responsibilities of the parties under the applicable Federal, State, or Local statutes.

III. DIVISION OF INITIAL CHARGE-PROCESSING RESPONSIBILITIES

In recognition of the statutory authority granted to the FEPA by Section 706(c) and 706(d) of Title VII as amended; and by Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the transmittal of charges of age discrimination pursuant to the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, the primary responsibility for resolving charges between the FEPA and the EEOC will be divided as follows:

A. The EEOC and the FEPA will process all Title VII, ADA, GINA, and ADEA charges that they originally receive.

1. For charges originally received by the EEOC and/or to be initially processed by the EEOC, the FEPA waives its right of exclusive jurisdiction to initially process such charges for a period of 60 days for the purpose of allowing the EEOC to proceed immediately with the processing of such charges before the 61st day.

In addition, the EEOC will initially process the following charges:

-- All Title VII, ADA, and concurrent Title VII/ADA charges jurisdictional with the FEPA and received by the FEPA 240 days or more after the date of violation;

-- All disability-based charges that may not be resolved by the FEPA in a manner consistent with the ADA.

-- All concurrent Title VII/EPA charges;

-- All charges against the FEPA or its parent organization where such parent organization exercises direct or indirect control over the charge decision-making process;

-- All charges filed by EEOC Commissioners;

-- Charges also covered by the Immigration Reform and Control Act;

-- Complaints referred to the EEOC by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, or Federal fund-granting agencies under 29 CFR § 1640, 1641, and 1691.

-- Any charge where the EEOC is a party to a Conciliation Agreement or a Consent Decree that, upon mutual consultation and agreement, is relevant to the disposition of the charge. The EEOC will notify the FEPA of all Conciliation Agreements and Consent Decrees that have features relevant to the disposition of subsequent charges;

-- Any charge alleging retaliation for filing a charge with the EEOC or for cooperating with the EEOC; and

-- All charges against Respondents that are designated for initial processing by the EEOC in a supplementary memorandum to this Agreement.

-- (Add additional provisions specific to District Office here)

2. The FEPA will initially process the following types of charges:

-- Any charge alleging retaliation for filing a charge with the FEPA or cooperating with the FEPA;

-- Any charge where the FEPA is a party to a Conciliation Agreement or a Consent Decree that, upon mutual consultation and agreement, is relevant to the disposition of the charge. The FEPA will provide the EEOC with an on-going list of all Conciliation Agreements and Consent Decrees that have features relevant to the disposition of subsequent charges;

-- All charges that allege more than one basis of discrimination where at least one basis is not covered by the laws administered by the EEOC but is covered by the FEPA Ordinance, or where the EEOC is mandated by federal court decision or by internal administrative EEOC policy to dismiss the charge, but the FEPA can process that charge.

-- All charges against Respondents that are designated for initial processing by the FEPA in a supplementary memorandum to this Agreement; and

-- All disability-based charges against Respondents over which the EEOC does not have jurisdiction.

(Add additional provisions specific to the FEPA here.)

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, the FEPA or the EEOC may request to be granted the right to initially process any charge subject to agreement of the other agency. Such variations shall not be inconsistent with the objectives of this Worksharing Agreement or the Contracting Principles.

C. Each Agency will on a quarterly basis notify the other of all cases in litigation and will notify each other when a new suit is filed. As charges are received by one Agency against a Respondent on the other Agency's litigation list a copy of the new charge will be sent to the other Agency's litigation unit within working days.

IV. EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

A. Both the FEPA and the EEOC shall make available for inspection and copying to appropriate officials from the other Agency any information that may assist each Agency in carrying out its responsibilities. Such information shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, investigative files, conciliation agreements, staffing information, case management printouts, charge processing documentation, and any other material and data as may be related to the processing of dual-filed charges or administration of the contract. The Agency accepting information agrees to comply with any confidentiality requirements imposed on the agency providing the information. With respect to all information obtained from the EEOC, the FEPA agrees to observe the confidentiality provisions of Title VII, the ADEA, the ADA and GINA.

- B. In order to expedite the resolution of charges or facilitate the working of this Agreement, either Agency may request or permit personnel of the other Agency to accompany or to observe its personnel when processing a charge.

V. RESOLUTION OF CHARGES

- A. Both agencies will adhere to the procedures set out in the EEOC's State and Local Handbook, including current revisions thereto.
- B. For the purpose of according substantial weight to the FEPA final finding and order, the FEPA must submit to the EEOC copies of all documents pertinent to conducting a substantial weight review; the evaluation will be designed to determine whether the following items have been addressed in a manner sufficient to satisfy EEOC requirements; including, but not limited to:
 - 1. jurisdictional requirements,
 - 2. investigation and resolution of all relevant issues alleging personal harm with appropriate documentation and using proper theory,
 - 3. relief, if appropriate,
 - 4. mechanisms for monitoring and enforcing compliance with all terms of conciliation agreements, orders after public hearing or consent orders to which the FEPA is a party.
- C. In order to be eligible for contract credit and/or payment, submissions must meet all the substantive and administrative requirements as stipulated in the Contracting Principles.
- D. For the purposes of determining eligibility for contract payment, a final action is defined as the point after which the charging party has no administrative recourse, appeal, or other avenue of redress available under applicable State and Local statutes.

VI. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE WORKSHARING AGREEMENT

- A. Each agency will designate a person as liaison official for the other agency to contact concerning the day-to-day implementation for the Agreement. The liaison for the FEPA will be (Jacquelyn Dupree). The liaison official for the EEOC will be (name of person).

- B. The agencies will monitor the allocation of charge-processing responsibilities as set forth in the Agreement. Where it appears that the overall projection appears inappropriate, the appropriate portions of this Agreement will be modified to ensure full utilization of the investigation and resolution capacities of the FEPA and rapid redress for allegations of unlawful employment discrimination.
- C. The agencies agree to work together in furtherance of the EEOC's current Strategic Plan when assessing the allocation of charges under this agreement and to cooperate in compliance and enforcement efforts as well as training, outreach and technical assistance efforts encompassed by the Plan.
- D. The EEOC will provide original forms to be copied by the FEPA, in accordance with the Regulations and the Compliance Manual to be used by the FEPAs in correspondence with Charging Parties and Respondents.
- E. If a dispute regarding the implementation or application of this agreement cannot be resolved by the FEPA and District Office Director, the issues will be reduced to writing by both parties and forwarded to the Director of the Office of Field Programs for resolution.
- F. This Agreement shall operate from the first day of October 2019 to the thirtieth day of September 2020 and may be renewed or modified by mutual consent of the parties.

I have read the foregoing Worksharing Agreement and I accept and agree to the provisions contained therein.

THE U.S. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

Miami District Office
(Name of EEOC District Office)

FOR FISCAL YEAR 2023

I. INTRODUCTION

- A. The Florida Commission on Human Relations , hereinafter referred to as the FEPA, has jurisdiction over allegations of employment discrimination filed against employers with 15 or more employees occurring within Florida based on race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status pursuant to the Florida Civil Rights Act, Chapter 760.01-760.11.

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, hereinafter referred to as the EEOC, has jurisdiction over allegations of employment discrimination occurring throughout the United States where such charges are based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity and sexual orientation), or national origin, all pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.) (hereinafter referred to as Title VII). The EEOC also has jurisdiction to investigate and determine charges of discrimination based on age (40 or older) under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq.)(ADEA); for unequal wages based on sex under the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 206(d)) (EPA); over allegations of employment discrimination based on disability pursuant to Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended (42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq.)(ADA); and over the use or acquisition of genetic information as the basis for employment decisions pursuant to Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (42 U.S.C. § 2000ff et seq.)(GINA). Section 709 (b) of Title VII and the procedural regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 1601.13(c), and §1626.10 for ADEA cases, provide for the EEOC to enter into worksharing agreements with FEPAs, such that FEPAs can receive pay to investigate some EEOC claims.

- B. In recognition of, and to the extent of the common jurisdiction and goals of the two Agencies, and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the FEPA and the EEOC hereby agree to the terms of this Worksharing Agreement (Agreement), which is designed to provide individuals with an efficient procedure for obtaining redress for their grievances under appropriate state and Federal laws.

II. FILING OF CHARGES OF DISCRIMINATION

- A. In order to facilitate the assertion of employment rights, the EEOC and the FEPA each designate the other as its agent for the purpose of receiving and drafting charges, including those that are not jurisdictional with the agency that initially receives the charges. The EEOC's receipt of charges on the FEPA's behalf will automatically initiate the proceedings of both the EEOC and the FEPA for the purposes of Section 706(c) and (e)(1) of Title VII. This delegation of authority to receive charges does not include the right of one agency to determine the jurisdiction of the other agency over a charge. Charges can be transferred from one agency to another in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- B. The FEPA shall take all charges alleging a violation of Title VII, ADEA, EPA, GINA or the ADA where both the FEPA and the EEOC have mutual jurisdiction, or where the EEOC only has jurisdiction, so long as the allegations meet the minimum requirements of the applicable statute, and for charges specified in Section III. A. 1. below, refer them to the EEOC for initial processing.
- C. Each agency will inform individuals of their rights to file charges directly with the other agency and or assist any person alleging employment discrimination to draft a charge in a manner that will satisfy the requirements of both agencies to the extent of their common jurisdiction. Normally, once an agency begins an investigation, it resolves the charge. Charges may be transferred between the EEOC and the FEPA in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Each agency will advise charging parties that charges will be resolved by the agency taking the charge except when the agency taking the charge lacks jurisdiction or when the charge is to be transferred in accordance with Section III of this Agreement.

- D. For charges that are to be dual filed, each agency will use the EEOC Charge Form 5 (or alternatively, an employment discrimination charge form which within statutory limitations, is acceptable in form and content to the EEOC and the FEPA) to draft charges. When a charge is taken based on disability, the nature of the disability shall not be disclosed on the face of the charge. (If applicable state statute or local ordinance requires such disclosures, this sentence may be deleted.)

(More specific instructions depending on District Office/FEPA procedures should also be included here.)

- E. Within ten calendar days of receipt, each agency agrees that it will notify both the Charging Party and the Respondent of the dual-filed nature of each such charge it receives for initial processing and explain the rights and responsibilities of the parties under the applicable Federal, State, or Local statutes.

III. DIVISION OF INITIAL CHARGE-HANDLING RESPONSIBILITIES

The primary responsibility for handling charges at the intake and investigation stages¹ between the FEPA and the EEOC will be divided as follows:

- A. The EEOC will investigate all Title VII, ADA, GINA, and ADEA charges that it originally receives, and the FEPA will investigate all charges that it originally receives under its respective state or local statutes.
 - 1. For charges originally received by the EEOC and/or to be initially investigated by the EEOC, the FEPA waives its right of exclusive jurisdiction to initially investigate such charges for a period of 60 days for the purpose of allowing the EEOC to proceed immediately with the investigation of such charges before the 61st day.

In addition, the EEOC will initially investigate the following charges:

- a. All Title VII, ADA, and concurrent Title VII/ADA charges jurisdictional with the FEPA and received by the FEPA 240 days or more after the date of violation;

¹ The terms "investigation" or "investigate" for purposes of this Agreement includes all intake and investigative evidence gathering actions, communications and correspondence related to inquiries and filed charges including interviews of potential claimants and witnesses; review and assessment of charges; jurisdiction and duplication of charge assessments; contract credit requests/assessments, etc. This does not include matters at the litigation stage.

- b. All disability-based charges that may not be resolved by the FEPA in a manner consistent with the ADA.
- c. All concurrent Title VII/EPA charges;
- d. All charges against the FEPA or its parent organization where such parent organization exercises direct or indirect control over the charge decision-making process;
- e. All charges filed by EEOC Commissioners;
- f. All charges filed by EEOC Office Directors under EPA and/or ADEA;
- g. Charges also covered by the Immigration Reform and Control Act;
- h. Complaints referred to the EEOC by the U.S. Department of Justice; the U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs; or Federal fund-granting agencies under 29 CFR §§ 1640, 1641, and 1691;
- i. Any charge where the EEOC is a party to a Conciliation Agreement or a Consent Decree that is relevant to the charge;
- j. Any charge alleging retaliation for filing a charge with the EEOC or for cooperating with the EEOC;
- k. All charges against Respondents that are designated for initial investigation by the EEOC in a supplementary memorandum to this Agreement; and
- l. All charges filed under GINA.

(Add additional provisions specific to District Office here)

2. The FEPA will initially investigate the following types of charges under its respective state or local statutes:
 - a. Any charge alleging retaliation for filing a charge with the FEPA or cooperating with the FEPA;
 - b. Any charge where the FEPA is a party to a Conciliation Agreement that is relevant to the charge. The FEPA will notify the EEOC on a quarterly basis of all Conciliation Agreements;

c. All charges that allege more than one basis of discrimination where at least one basis is not covered by the laws enforced by the EEOC but is covered by the state or local laws enforced by the FEPA, or where the EEOC is mandated by federal court decision or by internal administrative EEOC policy to dismiss the charge, but the FEPA is not required to dismiss that charge under state or local law;

d. All charges against Respondents that are designated for initial investigation by the FEPA in a supplementary memorandum to this Agreement agreed to by the EEOC; and

e. All disability-based charges against Respondents over which the EEOC does not have jurisdiction.

(Add additional provisions specific to the FEPA here.)

- B. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, the FEPA or the EEOC may request to be granted the right to initially investigate any charge subject to agreement of the other agency. Such variations shall not be inconsistent with the objectives of this Worksharing Agreement or the Contracting Principles.
- C. The EEOC and the FEPA may agree to cooperate and investigate cases together for the good of the public. The EEOC District Director and the FEPA Executive Director/Administrator will reduce to writing how the agencies will work together, setting forth the division of labor and how the agencies will proceed to jointly investigate. The charging parties (if any) and respondents will be informed of the division of labor and the intent to investigate together to ensure transparency in the investigative process to better serve the public. In the event of a dispute in this subsection, the agencies will resolve the dispute under Section VI.D that governs resolving disputes. Both agencies agree to represent a united front to the relevant employer and the employer's employees and applicants for employment involved in the matter.

IV. EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

- A. In furtherance of cooperative and coordinated efforts envisioned by Title VII and the procedural regulations, the FEPA and the EEOC will make available for inspection and copying to appropriate officials from the other agency, charge processing information that may assist the agency in carrying out its investigative responsibilities, as is practicable. Such information may include case information contained in investigative files and other material or data as may be related to the processing of dual filed charges or administration of the contract. Each agency is permitted to withhold, in its discretion, deliberative, confidential, and otherwise privileged information. The receiving agency will not provide the shared information to third parties without the express written consent of the agency that provided the information originally, except as required by law. The agency accepting information agrees to comply with any confidentiality requirements imposed on the agency providing the information to the extent possible. With respect to all information obtained from the EEOC, the FEPA agrees to observe the confidentiality provisions of Title VII, ADA, ADEA, GINA, and the Privacy Act. The parties understand that this provision is for investigative purposes only and any information obtained cannot be used outside the investigative process.

- B. In order to expedite the resolution of charges or facilitate the working of this Agreement, either agency may request or permit personnel of the other agency to accompany or to observe its personnel when investigating a charge.

V. RESOLUTION OF CHARGES

- A. Both agencies will adhere to the procedures set out in the EEOC's State and Local Handbook, including current revisions.
- B. For the purpose of affording substantial weight to the FEPA's final finding and order, the FEPA must submit to the EEOC copies of all documents pertinent to conducting a substantial weight review; the evaluation will be designed to determine whether the following items have been addressed in a manner sufficient to satisfy the EEOC requirements; including, but not limited to:
 - 1. jurisdictional requirements,
 - 2. investigation and resolution of all relevant issues alleging personal harm with appropriate documentation and using proper theory,
 - 3. relief, if appropriate,
 - 4. mechanisms for monitoring and enforcing compliance with all terms of conciliation agreements, orders after public hearing, or consent orders to which the FEPA is a party.

- C. In order to be eligible for contract credit and/or payment, submissions must meet all the substantive and administrative requirements as stipulated in the Contracting Principles.
- D. For the purposes of determining eligibility for contract payment, a final action is defined as the point after which the charging party has no administrative recourse, appeal, or other avenue of redress available under applicable State and Local statutes.

VI. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE WORKSHARING AGREEMENT

- A. Each agency will designate a person as liaison official for the other agency to contact concerning the day-to-day implementation for the Agreement. The liaison official for the FEPA will be Cheyenne Costilla. The liaison official for the EEOC will be Frank Hernandez.
- B. The agencies will monitor the allocation of charge-processing responsibilities as set forth in the Agreement. Where it appears that the overall projection appears inappropriate, the appropriate portions of this Agreement will be modified to ensure full utilization of the investigation and resolution capacities of the FEPA and rapid redress for allegations of unlawful employment discrimination.
- C. The agencies agree to work together in furtherance of the EEOC's current Strategic Plan objectives when assessing the allocation of charges under the Agreement and to cooperate in compliance and enforcement efforts as well as training, outreach and technical assistance efforts encompassed by the Strategic Plan.
- D. If a dispute regarding the implementation or application of this Agreement cannot be resolved by the FEPA Executive Director/Administrator and the EEOC District Office Director, the issues will be reduced to writing by both parties and forwarded to the EEOC Director of the Office of Field Programs (OFP) who may request additional information from the FEPA Executive Director/Administrator or the EEOC District Director. The Director of OFP's determination is final and may include, among other things, rescission of this Agreement and contract for services. This dispute resolution mechanism is the exclusive remedy for all disputes arising under this Agreement.
- E. This Agreement shall operate from the first day of October 2022 to the thirtieth day of September 2023 and may be renewed or modified by mutual consent of the parties.

I have read the foregoing Worksharing Agreement and I accept and agree to the provisions contained therein.

EXTENSION OF WORKSHARING AGREEMENT FY 2025

Inasmuch as there have been no substantive changes in the processes, procedures, statutes, policies or regulations that would adversely affect or substantially alter the work sharing arrangement between the Miami District Office and the Florida Commission on Human Rights, or that would affect the processing of charges filed under the pertinent Federal, state or local statutes, the parties agree to extend the current Worksharing Agreement that was executed on 10/14/2022 through the FY 2025 Charge Resolution Contract Option Period, from October 1, 2024 through September 30, 2025. By executing this extension, the parties agree to abide by the confidentiality provisions cited in the Worksharing Agreement. This extension, as well as the attendant Worksharing Agreement may be reopened and amended by mutual consent of the parties.

The EEOC does not accept for credit any work that the EEOC and its agents are enjoined from performing because of a court order.
