

LOCAL RULE 13 | MOTIONS IN LIMINE

The Court prefers to hear all motions in limine at the time of trial. The parties are not to schedule motions in limine for special set hearings absent Court approval. If a party wants the Court to hear a motion in limine prior to trial, the party can advise the Court at the Calendar Call, and the Court can schedule the motion prior to the trial.

