

LOCAL RULE 03 | COURT-ORDERED PROCEDURES

ALL LITIGANTS need to be aware of A.O.S.C. 20-23, 12th Amendment, (April 13, 2021) and the Proposed changes to the FL.R.Civ.P. The Florida Supreme Court and Chief Judge have ordered that CMC Orders, scheduling orders and trial orders be strictly enforced and this Court intends to comply. Litigants are so advised herein and shall be prepared each and every instance where they have not complied with a Court order to discuss the criteria for sanctions per Kozel v. Ostendorf, 629 So.2d 817 \(Fla. 1993\). [1 - was the disobedience willful, deliberate or contumacious, rather than neglect, 2 - any previous sanctions, 3 - was the client involved in the disobedience, 4 - prejudice to opposing party, 5 - was there a reasonable justification, 6 - did the delay created significant problems of judicial administration.] See, Massey v. Thomas, 4D21-2125 \(Fla. 4th DCA July 20, 2022\).
