

LOCAL RULE 62 | CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES: (APPEARANCE IS MANDATORY)

Pursuant to Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.200(a) and (b), if you are ordered to appear in court for a case management conference, your court appearance is MANDATORY. Failure to appear at a case management conference will result in sanctions, including dismissal or striking of pleadings per Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.200(c). A Case Management Conference may only be cancelled if an Order of Dismissal is entered.

Please Note: If your trial is four days or more, or particularly complicated, or if you have scheduling conflicts, you should file a motion asking for a Case Management Conference.

