

IOP 6.6 | CLERK NOTIFICATION

When a judge requests en banc consideration either on a party motion or on a judge or panel sua sponte request for en banc consideration, the judge shall promptly notify the clerk. The clerk shall immediately identify the case as one containing a judge's request for en banc consideration, and no order denying rehearing shall issue until notice from the chief judge to the clerk. The clerk will withdraw any opinion in the case that is on pre-release.
