

28-105.0027 | INTERVENTION

(1) Persons other than the original parties to a pending proceeding whose substantial interests will be affected by the disposition of the declaratory statement and who desire to become parties may move the presiding officer for leave to intervene. The presiding officer shall allow for intervention of persons meeting the requirements for intervention of this rule. Except for good cause shown, motions for leave to intervene must be filed within 21 days after publication of (or such later time as is specified in) the notice in the Florida Administrative Register. The presiding officer may impose terms and conditions on the intervenor to limit prejudice to other parties.

(2) The motion to intervene shall contain the following information:

- (a) The name, address, the e-mail address, and facsimile number, if any, of the intervenor; if the intervenor is not represented by an attorney or qualified representative; and
- (b) The name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, and any facsimile number of the intervenor's attorney or qualified representative, if any; and
- (c) Allegations sufficient to demonstrate that the intervenor is entitled to participate in the proceeding as a matter of constitutional or statutory right or pursuant to agency rule, or that the substantial interests of the intervenor are subject to determination or will be affected by the declaratory statement; and
- (d) The signature of the intervenor or intervenor's attorney or qualified representative; and
- (e) The date.

(3) Any party may, within seven days of service of the motion, file a response in opposition.
