IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 3D-2014-2000

LT CASE NO.: 13-1083 TTS; 13-1084TTS (CONSOLIDATED)

DAVID GOOTEE AND MARISSA GOOTEE
a/k/a MARISA GOOTEE

Respondents/Appellants

vs.

SCHOOL BOARD OF MONROE COUNTY,
FLORIDA

Petitioner/Appellee

REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Appellants request oral argument of this matter.

1. In this case, the School Board of Monroe County, in its final order, granted each of its ten exceptions to an extensive recommended order of the Division of Administrative Hearings that had denied the Board's petitions to terminate appellants, husband and wife's, dual employments as regular high school teachers and adult education teachers.
2. The thrust of this appeal is that the Administrative Law Judge's recommended order was based on competent substantial evidence which the School Board could not reject or modify. As this case is heavily fact-bound, appellants request the opportunity to review the issues with the court and to respond to any questions or concerns that the court may have.

WHEREFORE appellants respectfully request that the court grant oral argument of this matter.
