Division of Administrative Hearings

Regulatory Plan Pursuant to Section 120.74(3)*, Florida Statutes

Pursuant to section 120.74(3), Florida Statutes, the Division of Administrative Hearings (DOAH) presents its 2015-2016 regulatory plan describing each rule it proposes to adopt for this 12-month period. DOAH has two programs under its umbrella, Adjudication of Disputes and Workers' Compensation Appeals. The Adjudication of Disputes Program follows the Model Rules of Administrative Procedure, Florida Administrative Code Chapter 28-106, which are promulgated by the Administration Commission (Commission). The Administrative Law Section of the Florida Bar from time to time suggests amendments and, with our input, provides these to the Commission for consideration and approval. The Workers' Compensation Appeals Program, through the Office of Judges of Compensation Claims (the OJCC within DOAH), considers and promulgates those rules necessary to carry out its statutory duties under chapter 440, Florida Statutes. These rules are found in Florida Administrative Code Chapter 60Q-6.

DOAH does not currently intend to adopt new rules, or amend or repeal existing rules this fiscal year. It is always possible that participants and stakeholders in the administrative and workers' compensation adjudicatory processes will suggest or request rulemaking or amendments to existing rules in the coming fiscal year. Also, with the passage of CS/HB 985, DOAH has been granted authority to adopt rules as necessary to implement the mandatory agency filing of final orders for indexing with DOAH. If necessary to carry out this statutory mandate, DOAH will consider rulemaking to explain the process for filing if it appears that agencies are uncertain as to how the new statutory language will be implemented. To the extent DOAH receives, considers, and acts upon any such requests, we will provide a detailed explanation of the amendments or rules to be promulgated.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert S. Cohen
Director and Chief Judge

Law enacted or amended	Is rulemaking necessary to implement the law?	Written Explanation Why the Law May be Implemented Without Rulemaking	Rule Development and Proposed Rule F.A.R. Citations or the Date Rule Expected to be Published Rule Number	Statute Number	Rule Number	Rule Title
Ch. 2019-049, Laws of Fla.	No	The statute is clear that the identity of children in any administrative proceedings shall be kept confidential and exempt from public records.	N/A	39.202(2)(j)	N/A	N/A
Ch. 2019-076, Laws of Fla.	No	The statute is clear that the department's decision to reject an application for a certificate of title or to cancel a certificate of title provides a right to an administrative hearing pursuant to s. 120.569 and 120.57, F.S. No clarification by rule is necessary.	N/A	328.09(6)	N/A	N/A
Ch. 2019-136, Laws of Fla.	No	The repeal of most certificate of need for health care facilities takes away a right to a hearing concerning the issuance or denial of a CON. DOAH will no longer hear cases involving CONs for hospitals, so no rulemaking to clarify the clear statutory mandate is required or necessary.	N/A	408	N/A	N/A
Ch. 2019-159, Laws of Fla.	No	The statute creates a new statewide certification process for addiction professionals and provides a right for an administrative hearing pursuant to sections 120.569 and 120.57 for aggrieved applicants or licensees. No rulemaking is necessary to explain the plain language of the statute regarding the right to hearing. Further, under the second statute cited, the right to an administrative hearing when action is taken against certification is clear and needs no further explanation through rulemaking as to hearing rights.	N/A	397.321(15), 397.487(8)(e)	N/A	N/A
Ch. 2019-160, Laws of Fla.	No	The right to an hearing by an affected party to a continuing care application is clearly stated and needs no rulemaking to implement. The second provision cited allows a hearing right if the application is denied and, since clearly stated, requires no rulemaking from DOAH to explain or implement. The final provision cited similarly is clear as to the right to an administrative hearing authorized and requires no rulemaking to explain or implement.
