

Florida Commission on Human Relations
FY 2023-2024 Regulatory Plan

Pursuant to section 120.74(1), Florida Statutes, the Florida Commission on Human Relations (FCHR) presents its FY 2023-2024 regulatory plan. The FCHR has the power to adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind rules to effectuate the purposes and policies of the Florida Civil Rights Act of 1992, the Whistle-blower's Act, the Florida Fair Housing Act, and to govern the proceedings of the commission in accordance with chapter 120.

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(a), Florida Statutes, the FCHR reports that there were no laws enacted or amended during the previous 12 months which create or modify the duties or authority of the FCHR.

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(b), Florida Statutes, below is a listing of each law not otherwise listed pursuant to paragraph (a), which the FCHR expects to implement by rulemaking before July 1, 2024, except emergency rulemaking. For each law listed, the plan states whether the rulemaking is intended to simplify, clarify, increase efficiency, improve coordination with other agencies, reduce regulatory costs, or delete obsolete, unnecessary, or redundant rules:

Section 760.06, F.S.	60Y-2.009	List of Forms and Instructions	Delete rule for forms no longer used or required by the Commission

Section 760.34, F.S.	60Y-4.031	Notice of Appeals	Clarify

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(c), Florida Statutes, the FCHR reports that it is not planning to update its prior year's regulatory plan.
